"Sonic Bloom"

Love gets inside of you. It makes me invisible. And I will continue to hang on super love, a sonic bloom, a total emotionless excuse. I can't believe it happened to me. The magic's in my heart. Believe me. Rushing through my electrical phase, I found a place to hide when you're away. Almost caught myself a breath. I touched your hand and lost myself instead. Swung my hands up through the air. Northwest skies I love the way you shine. I wanna be just as good. I wanna make it better. I wanna see you sideways. I wanna make it better. When love gets inside of you it makes me invincible. And I can't believe this happened to me.
