"Too Late"

As I sit here thinking of you. I'm wondering if you'll like my personality. I wanna become friends with you then after awhile I'll try to make you mine. You're beautiful in every way. Now it's time to conquer this shyness of mine and talk to you.

I hope I'm not too late. I hope you're not taken. 'Cause I want you forever. 'Cause you are my love. You're the one I fell for. I hope it's not too late.

I feel a rush of love every time I see you. I always try to talk to you, but you're always surrounded by all your friends. I'm always too late whenever I want to say "Hi". One of these days I'll conquer this shyness of mine and talk to you.

I hope I'm not too late. I hope you're not taken. 'Cause I want you forever. 'Cause you are my love. You're the one I fell for. I hope it's not too late.

I hope I'm not too late! I hope it's not too late, yeah!

Do you hear those screams? Can you hear the screams from my heart? I want to hold you and never let go. So when I finally talk to you. I hope I won't be too late.

I hope I'm not too late. I hope you're not taken. 'Cause I want you forever. 'Cause you are my love. You're the one I fell for. I hope it's not too late.
