wrists are severed
the deepest cuts are traced in red so beautiful the seperation of her flesh from the razor feeling a pain she's never known like broken glass draining the blood that's running cold

she tasted eternity
it's kiss like a last goodbye as she's taken herself from me forever abandoned

eyes held open, the bitter taste of blood and sweat the emptiness the suffocates a final breath, endless silence that dulls the pain beneath her skin her vacant eyes watching the blood that's running thin

she's taken herself from me
