

Agony Scene, The "Rattle Me Bones"

Blinded by fear and deception.
Sing the praise of the fraudulent.

They turn their backs, avert their eyes and fall in line.
Resist, suffer for the sins of our fathers.
Left us to die, hopeless and praying for the end.

Words of fear and intolerance.
Distorted sense of morality.
Twist a message of love and forgiveness.
Justify your hatred, without regard to validity.

They turn their backs, avert their eyes and fall in line.
Resist, suffer for the sins of our fathers.
Left us to die, hopeless and praying for the end.
