

Agony Scene, The "Scars Of Your Disease"

Visit "Scars Of Your Disease" on MotoLyrics.com

I am the ever-forsaken bastard child of your disease
your dead and abandoned strung up for all of you to see naked and screaming so beautiful profane
the essence of bleeding
the scars that bare my name
I am the hatred incarnate
I am the choked and dying screams
I am the sickness inside you longing for..

This is the hate that surrounds you Pray for the endless touch of death
Now burning inside you I am the scars of your disease

I am eternal damnation the bastard child of your disease the slow suffocation strung up for everyone to see

Sever the feeling the mirror of your shame
the darkest temptation your scars that bear my name
I am the endless procession
I am the poison for the weak I am your loveless desire, longing for

(repeat chorus)

I am the ever-forsaken bastard child of your disease
your dead and abandoned
strung up for all to view

(repeat chorus)
