

Drake White

"Simple Life"

Visit "Simple Life" on MotoLyrics.com

I ain't no movie star, no I ain't no politician
I ain't no suit and tie, Lord I wouldn't cut out for that type of living
And some folks choose that and I reckon that's alright
But I'm a fan of the simple life

I said I'm a fan of beer ice cold
Waving at my neighbor when I meet him on the road
Kissing on my woman in the moonlight
Yeah, I'm a fan of the simple life
Give me a good pair of boots
A small piece of land
A little ol' house where I can hang my hat
I'll be a happy man
Yes, I'm a fan of the simple life

I'll take a country road, yes I'll take a row of beans I'll take an old church pew with my family sittin' next to me
I said a sunrise, sunset grillin' on the back steps
Pickin' on a good song tonight
Hey I'm a fan of the simple life

I said I'm a fan of beer ice cold
Waving at my neighbor when I meet him on the road
Kissing on my woman in the moonlight
Yeah, I'm a fan of the simple life
Give me a good pair of boots
A small piece of land
A little ol' house where I can hang my hat
I'll be a happy man
Yes, I'm a fan of the simple life

A fan of the simple life
Just a fan of the simple life

Visit Drake White page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.