I ain't no movie star,
No, I ain't no politician
I ain't no suit and tie
Lord, I wasn't cut out for that type of livin'

And some folks choose that
And I reckon that's alright
But I'm a fan of the simple life

I said I'm a fan of beer ice cold
A-wavin' at my neighbor when I meet him on the road
Kissin' on my woman in the moonlight
Yeah, I'm a fan of the simple life
Give me a good pair of boots, a small piece of land
A little old house where I can hang my hat
I'll be a happy man, yes I'm I fan
Of the simple life

I'll take a country road
Yes, I'll take a row of beans
I'll take an old church pew
With my family sittin' next to me

I said, a sunrise, sunset
Grillin' on the back steps
Pickin' on a good song tonight
Yes, I'm a fan of the simple life

I said I'm a fan of beer ice cold
A-wavin' at my neighbor when I meet him on the road
Kissin' on my woman in the moonlight
Yeah, I'm a fan of the simple life
Give me a good pair of boots, a small piece of land
A little old house where I can hang my hat
I'll be a happy man, yes I'm I fan
Of the simple life

Yeah, I'm a fan of beer ice cold
A-wavin' at my neighbor when I meet him on the road
Kissin' on my woman in the moonlight
Yeah, I'm a fan of the simple life

Give me a good pair of boots, a small piece of land
A little old house where I can hang my hat
I'll be a happy man, yes I'm I fan
Of the simple life

A fan of the simple life
Just a fan of the simple life
