So won't you take a seat in my office?
We'll investigate the feats that you claim
I can show you a nightmare!
One that will torment your brain

Once more you are left screaming
But it's really not that big of a stretch
You just don't have the pedigree
You don't have the marks for the test
100% Pain

I understand your desire
And the need to vent your rage!
But it's not always about you
It's what you can bring to the cage!.

I see your kind almost daily,
A belief you can go all the way!
But takes so much more than desire
You'll have to do more than just hope and pray.
100% Pain
