I look around and what do I see. 10 Thousand faces
staring back at me.
I try to find new places to go. But they keep finding my new hidey whole.
My ears prick when I hear the alarm, Medication time at the funny farm.
We line up to receive our fix, But they cant find the perfect mix.

[Chorus:]

Ill come running when I hear you call; I wont let you down anymore.
Standing tall for the very first time. Im gonna take it and make it mine.
Can we meet on common ground? This time around.

Ill take the pressure and Ill never fall. I didnt hurt you at all.
I know your sceptic of my intensions. This personality
my next invention.
Im walking tall but its all deceit. To see me squirm
must be quite a treat.
The next alarm wakes me from my slumber. Inside
here I
just another number.

[Chorus]

I sit and wait as its all I can do. Locked away in this human zoo.
They say I killed you and now youre dead. The doctors think Im out of my head Im restrained for my own safety. I just feel a little off here lately.
They ask me where you can be found, To reveal my dumping ground.
