"Where The Darkness Screams"

To may impulsive mortals running around spreading inane Lies

Their inward admiration supersedes there dilettante ties

I'm oh so frustrated degraded provoking a response
Where the darkness screams

Words dribble from your mouth speaking in tongues
From a syphilis mind!

Your pugnacity suggests you rate as one of a kind
Your oh so distorted, aborted, grave is the one.
Where the darkness screams!

Where is emancipation, locked away in a dream like state.

Emotions fueled with anger, volatile, galvanized in hate

Renouncing, who's counting,
What will your tombstone read
Where the darkness screams!
