[Verse 1]

The way you looked at me in the starlight
Like an angel no one has ever seen.
You mesmerise me with your eyes so bright
And I was only seventeen

[Chorus:]

And now youve changed
You cant deign me now, oh
You didnt have to lie
I could have shown you the light
You didnt have to lie
Youve forced me to reveal my hand tonight.

[Verse 2]

So now Im left without a heart beat
Forced to walk the sands alone
No more will I feel pleasure
Trapped forever in this loveless zone.

[Chorus]
