Because You Wanted It

I gave it to you
Because you wanted it
And now you try to tell me
How I ruined your life
I gave it to you
Because you begged me to
So don't you try to tell me
How I ruined your life

So when you awake in the feverish morning
Feels like there's bugs crawling under your skin
The sickness comes without any warning
Remember
Remember this
You wanted it

I gave it to you

Because you wanted it
You were like a gypsy
Calling round my door
And I gave it to you
Because you begged me to
And now don't you try to tell me
You don't want it anymore

So when you awake in the feverish morning
Feels like there's bugs crawling under your skin
The sickness comes without any warning
Remember
Remember this
You wanted it
Yeah you
Wanted it
Yeah you
Wanted it
