I see the world as an entire
When I'm most alone.
I'll walk a mile,
Just to take the throne.

We all have one wing,
But together we can fly away
I see myself doubting everything,
And everyone because it's you
I sing this song to now.
I'll walk alone as this is what life's like now.
The cold will never be so cold, this is because of you
This is because of you.

There's no life with clean breaks.
Or no chance we can't take.
Forgiveness lies too deep
To be vanished away.

So flawless from the outside.
Never trust a stranger.
Farewell to our hearts
Remember the so called desire
A brand new spirit destiny,
Won't let my mind play tricks on me.
Closed chapters, opened curtains
To let myself be focused.

Through coldest nights we found ourselves marching.
Summer nights were meant to save us,
And stop us from aching.
I don't need another tragic ending,
No time for precious glorifying.
What's left in me will be better shortly.

I learnt too much, I've seen it all
Was love suppose to feel like this?
I can only run away
Let my past drown inside of me.
Let go and leave it all behind.

There's no life with clean breaks.
No chance we can't take.
Forgiveness lies too deep
To be vanished away.

When you piece it all together
Fragments of affection, come crawling back together
It will never stop unless you make it,
And grab the chances you have so take it.

NOTES:

The relationship between human beings fascinates me
and I wrote this song
To let go of people who are or were a negative input in my life.
It took me a while to observe and analyse different personalities and over
The years I think I've learnt what it takes to find out who are people
Worth having in your life.
Every experience is something that has helped you in some way and it's so
Precious and worth more than anything.
No one can take away your experiences and what you've been through, and I Believe it's truly a great thing.
Try to remember and memorize all the good times you had even from people
Who ended up betraying you because anything you loved will always be a part
Of you.
You can't forget things you once truly loved.
Move on but hold onto your memories. When one door closes, another opens.
