SHOW ME WHAT MY DREAMS ARE MADE OF!

Believe me, we're coming home,
We keep marching cause we're heading north,
With the sun, guiding into every song,
I swear we won't fail, we be taking too long,
We shape our world with hands of stone,
No matter how far we've come,
Sleepless nights are our closest friends,
With no clouds above my head,
Keep singing,

In your own head, you feel the light dim fast,
Find it and look no further,
Deep inside, hiding from yourself,
I won't hold you back no longer,

What we said we want, we said we could,
What you said we were, we ended up being,
What we said we want, we said we could,
What you said we were, we ended up being,

When you burn for something,
You're left with nothing,
When you burn for something,
You're left with nothing,

When I swallow the fire, it doesn't burn no more,
When I swallow the fire, it doesn't burn no more,
It only sets alight the sparkle, in order to end this war,
When I swallow the fire, it doesn't burn no more,
It only sets alight the sparkle, in order to end this
war,

Show me what my dreams are made of,

Believe me, we're coming home,
We keep marching cause we're heading north,
With the sun, guiding into every song,
I swear we won't fail, we be taking too long,

We shape our world with hands of stone,
No matter how far things seem to become,
Sleepless nights are our closest friends,
With no clouds above my head,
Keep singing,

When you burn for something,
