In my bed tonight, I had a dream I'd never had before in my life
A dream of bright blue skies
A field of exploration in the night

The lack of morning light, it makes me feel much better then when its bright.
I only live at night, the days a preparation for sleeping tight

You are my most friendly friend
With you I don't have to pretend
All I need is R.E.M
So let me go to sleep again

After the sun has set I sleep til' far beyond the damn sunrise
Don't wake me up just yet
Please give me one more minute of paradise

You are my most friendly friend
With you I don't have to pretend
All I need is R.E.M
So let me go to sleep again

With you anything is possible
With you I'll do anything
With you I am anyone
With you I'll go anywhere

You are my most friendly friend
With you I don't have to pretend
All I need is R.E.M
So let me go to sleep again
You are my most friendly friend
With you I don't have to pretend
All I need is R.E.M
So let me go to sleep again
