C E7 Am Fmaj7 Bb C
Lonesome Suzie, never got the breaks
E7 Am G
She's always losing so she sits and cries and shakes
C E7 Am F Bb C
It's so hard just to watch her, and if I touch her
Eb Bb C Am C G C
Oh, poor Suzie, I'm wondrin' what to do

She just sits there, hoping for a friend
I don't fit here, but I may have a friend to lend
Maybe I mistook her, but I can't overlook her
Must be someone who can pull her through

E7 Am Fmaj7 Bb C
Anyone who's felt that bad could tell me what to say
E7 Am G
Even if she'd just get mad, she might be better off that way
C E7 Am
And where is all the understanding
Fmaj7 Bb C
Her problems can't be that demanding
Eb Bb C Am
Why is it she looks that way
C Gsus4 C
Every time she starts to cry?

Lonesome Suzie, I can't watch you cry no longer
If you can use me until you feel a little stronger
I guess just watching you has made me lonesome too
Why don't we get together,
Dm7 G7 C
What else can we do?
