Coward!!!

Stabbed in the back,i've lost my trust for the person that i've trusted so much always smiling and laughin in my face but talk shit about me every other place you were my brother you had my respect til i felt the steel pierce thru my back now my trust for you is over cuz you turned into a backstabbing poser (chorus)I need to stitch up my back i turned my head and you attacked all in my face you used to sweat me behind my back you disrespect me You wouldnt say nuthin when it was eye to eye behind my back you wish that i would die i didnt think this would happen to me the only friend i had was an enemy i cant believe the person i considered a brother was a 2 faced bitch undercover the only person i trusted my whole life stabbed me in the back wit a butchers knife
(chorus)
(Never Again)Will I trust no one
(Never Again)Will I be So dumb x 2
Never Again x 2
Why cant you see
You are now the enemy
I cant believe
You would betray me but (Never Again)Will I trust no one
(Never Again)Will I be so dumb x 2
Never Again x 2
(chorus)
