Postmark this fucking city
Because I'm never ever coming back
I can't stand it here any longer
It's turning my heart black

Morrissey sang " there is another world"
" there is a better world, there must be "
I'm still searching always searching
Where is this light you said would never go out?
Where is this fucking light
So take me out tonight

If this is the future I'd rather sing down the barrel of a
Fucking gun
So pull the trigger
If this is the future I'd rather be dead (I'm already dead

Your guilty of life
And that's a fucking shame
I'm dying inside
I don't feel the same
And that's a fucking shame

If your are my compass then I'm lost forever
