Somewhere up in the night you can hear
(The unforgotten)
I bet you now to cleanse me pure
As I take the sacred path
Free thinking ever changing
During gain control
The spin moon magic
Seems to revoke
Your crying yourself
Oh silvery glow
Ever a waiting to crawl
Somewhere close in the dark you can feel
(The unforgotten)
Your downly mood
And ancient rights
For common sense and expiration
God is the one who restrains
She goes down the light
The spin moon magic
Seems to revoke
Your crying yourself
Oh silvery glow
Ever a waiting to crawl
Silvery glow
She drowns down the light
She drowns down the light
(Goes down)
She drowns down the light
She drowns down the light
(Goes down)
She drowns down the light
She drowns down the light
(Down the light)
She drowns down the light
She drowns down the light
Oh silvery glow
Ever a waiting to crawl
