Vengeance for their blood
The blood of angels
Downfall of a system
That allows the slaughter

I'll reject a lifetime of lies
For just one day of truth
I'll defy the sins of man
As they worship the altar of fire

Crushing all opposition
I'll tear their safe world down
Humanity, spawn of the deceiver
In the flames of hell they'll rot

I refuse the legacy
I will not embrace the lies
Will not bow down to their alter
Won't accept their ideals

I'll bring down the system
And destroy all they know
Expose their heroes
And I'll watch the whole world fall

Vengeance for the angels
The ones sent to save
Vengeance for the angels
Sent straight to their grave

Slaughter of the innocent
Condemned and crucified
Saviors sent to reform
They suffered and they died

Man will suffer and drown in flames
Man will suffer and drown in flames
Man will suffer and drown in flames
Man will suffer and drown in flames
