Fade away illusion in my mind please be gone you're just a shadow of the past now a vision of what couldn't last now leave me.
Fade away
and vanish from my dreams every night why does you memory still come stealing leaving this lonely empty feeling in me.
I hear you calling in my reverie why do you still remain here haunting me endlessly.
Fade away
and let my life begin once again our love belongs to yesterdays now leave soft and vanish in the haze now quickly.
I see you smiling from a distant place
and as i reach to touch
i watch your face fade away.
i watch your face fade away.
