There you go
all of your feelings are starting to show and there i go
i'm feelin' the heartache again' cause i know i'm unable to fight it here they come
my eyes can't hold on to the teardrops falling down like rain don't now
i swear i don't know how to leave you girl i just don't know.
Look at me
just look with your heart for a moment and see i really to love you what to say
i can't seem to find any words left to say except that i love you you and i
somehow i just never imagined we would ever part but now
there's no way for you to deny it i know it's in your heart.
Flow just let it go
and do all the things you feel inside what else can i say
it's meant to be
i gave you my best
at least i tried.
Go away
before i go crazy and beg you to stay a little bit longer
let it be
what good would it do anyway i can see the hurt would be stronger fare the well
and remember no matter what happens that i will always love you
and then
you change your mind and you need me i'll take you back again.

at least i tried.
Go away
at least i tried.
