"You Can't Burn My Heart Out"

I won't run, I won't hide
You won't see me loose my pride
I'm the thorn, un your side
And my eyes are opened wide

I will stay, I won't fade away
Listen

You can't burn my heart out
Whatever you do
You don't know
What love's about
I'm not like you

No you, you can't burn my heart out
I'm not of your breed
You, you can't burn my heart out
You never will succeed
You, you can't burn my heart out
I'm the one

You can't stop
When you think you've reached the top
I'll be there to take care
You get more than you could bear

I do swear, I'll be there
