They say, it's all over
I'm your, lucky clover
I'm not, good at guess it
Why not, you confess it

You said, you & I
Would read fairy tales
Again one night &
You & I
Would make up adventures in our minds

You say, it's uneven
You're the, one who's leaving
I hear, what you're saying
I thought you were playing

You said, you & I
Would read fairy tales
Again one night &
You & I
Would make up adventures in our minds

You walk away, ungrateful
Not another day
To say you're sorry that it's changed
It's gotta be this way

You & I
Would make up adventures in our minds
