"Said You Would"

Three little steps in the clouds
before a pool in the sky consumed a Saturday in me

(chorus)
and still you go away although you wanna stay to come around tomorrow
Be still the only one you kill is waiting for you still you're not the lonely one and still you wanna say you'd rather fade away then come around tomorrow be calm the only thing that's on the radio is gone

I lose funny faces lose them in some funny places I lose funny places hip parade for me but still you turn away from promises you take from yesterdays tomorrow

is aching for you still
