Ain't lookin' forward
and I ain't lookin' back
and I ain't lookin' back Lordy, seem like every hour sure gon' be my last

Minutes feel like hours
hours feel like days
and hours feel like days well the wind is a-risin'
and the trees begin to sway

I wake up each mornin' and watch the sun go down
I wake up each mornin' and I watch the sun go down
I got find a reason just to hang around

I'm a sweet little rider
I'm lighter than the wind
lighter than the wind

lighter than the wind
lighter than the wind

I been a sweet little rider since I don't know when
