Verse 1:

Yesterday is takin' my tomorrows,
My empty heart can't take no more,
It's hard to live... no one to follow,
Where's the hope I once had before,
I watch the seasons fade, My fate's still out of place
Each step, I can't deny, I'm in trouble
Tell me...

Chorus:

How can I live without somebody like you?
Somebody like you, Please tell me...
How can I live without somebody like you?
Just tell me, "It's over,
It's almost over..."

Verse 2:

So many things in this room remind me,
Of being here next to you,
These scars consume my mind and body,
Where's the hope that I once knew,
I watch the seasons fade, my fate's still out of place,
Each step I can't deny I'm in trouble,
Tell me...

Chorus:

How can I live without somebody like you?
Somebody like you, Please tell me...
How can I live without somebody like you?
Just tell me, "It's over,
It's almost over..."

Verse 3:

Sitting and listening,
Laughing and wondering,
I'm watching the stars go by,
Everything reminds me of you,
And I can't get you off my mind,
How Can I live? How Can I live?
How can I live with out you... in my life?

Extended Chorus:

How can I live without somebody like you?

Somebody like you, Please tell me...

How can I live without somebody like you?

Just tell me, "It's over,

It's almost over..."

How can I live without you, (How can I live?)

When I'm watching the stars go by?

How can I live without you, (How can I Live?)

When I can't get you off my mind?...
