"Flowers"

Walk away
Like there's nothing left to say
Walk away
Like it doesn't mean a thing

Leave me cold
From your icy gaze
Your heart of snow

Leave me cold

Don't even try
To look my way
Lose me in the crowds

Don't even try
Hide yourself away
Cover your face

With all the empty things you say
With all the wasted days
That I gave

Who'll be the one
To chase the ghosts away?
Who'll bring you flowers
And place them on your grave?
Who'll be the one
To hold on to your name?
Who'll be the one
To take my place?
