Father, into the dark you fell
Spirits worn by an atrocity
Mere deception to us all
They never knew what you would be
As you climbed that burning wall
You betrayed your destiny

I fought you hard and took you down
But to kill machine is to raise the ground
A distorted mind raised an imperial dream
Empirical lies aren't what they seem

Hey! Here we're fighting and we're onto your army of clones
Uninvolved mass material lies won't depart or deplete the drones
You fought the truth

Your empire is this armageddon
So quit lying to yourself and betray your loyalty

Fate wrapped it's hand around my neck
And gripped until I took that final fatal step
And trap myself inside these goddamn walls
But the anger I sedate evolves the reasons why I stay

Your empire is this armageddon
So quit lying to yourself and betray your loyalty

Just a memory brings me down and I will fight you in the end
Like the betrayal to a king, the unloyal blood will bleed

Your empire is this armageddon
So quit lying to yourself and betray your loyalty
