A winning smile of gleaming teeth
W.O. on his handkerchief
He does a handstand for his fans
Have you seen those beautiful hands?

Marching to the sound of drums
Look at the guitar he strums
He's the man with the golden gums
Hmm hmm hmm hmm hmm he hums

Chorus:
Just to hear the words you speak
Just to feel your body heat
Just to see what's underneath this week
So take a look at this boy
Stand back, enjoy
Take a look at his ploy
He's cool, he's coy
They go higher, higher
'Til they set themselves on fire
They go higher, higher
'Til they set the neighbourhood on fire

In baggy underpants and vest
He makes a move toward his guest
Round and round and up the spire
Loving like a tumble dryer
Just to see him undressed
Put his manhood to the test
I suppose I could have guessed

Repeat chorus
