(Written by Caetano Veloso, English version: Os Mutantes)

You know, you must take a look at the new land

The swimming pool and the teeth of your friend

The dirt in my hand

You know, you must take a look at me

Baby, baby

I know that's the way

You know, you must try the new ice cream flavor

Do me a favor, look at me closer

Join us and go far

And hear the new sound of my bossa nova

Baby, baby

It's been a long time

You know, it's time now to learn Portuguese

It's time now to learn what I know

And what I don't know

And what I don't know

And what I don't know

I know, with me everything is fine

It's time now to make up your mind

We live in the biggest city of South America

Of South America

Of South America

Look here, read what I wrote on my shirt

Baby, baby

I love you

You do
