You are the one , all the songs that I'm singing
You are my laughter and pain
So here I am , on my knees and I'm beg you
Don't let it happen again

You have said , you found someone else
You let me stand in the rain
So here I am , on my knees and I beg you
Don't let it happen again

Give me a chance to believe that believin'
For once take away all the strife
For you are my life , all the reasons for livin'
So please let me live my own life
Give me a chance to prove that it's true

(break)

So here I am on my knees, and I beg you
Don't let it happen again
Give me a chance to believe that believin'
For once take away all the strife
For you are my life, all the reasons for livin'
So please let me live my own life
Give me a chance to prove that it's true

You are the one , all the songs that I'm singing
You are my laughter and pain
So here I am , on my knees and I beg you
Don't let it happen again
