There's a law in what we do.
We got a quest for something new.
Everything you witness seems to let you down.

If someone gets you from behind.
I got an open mind.
And you've been thirsty for the friend you found.

Close your eyes and make a wish.
I don't wanna mess with mother nature.
(Knowing that you're mine.)
You said I could see you with another and we all get satisfied.

It's a form of evolution,
it's a kind of moving on,
an eternal source of pleasure,
in being the one.

When your love is for the giving,
it's a case of destiny.

You know we look for the same insane games.
Got to be commital to be a little deviation.

So I get all wound up inside.
I can see your scene unwind.
You dance together or you dance alone.

And leave the real world in the air.
Love it in leather I don't care.
Everything is legal in the danger zone.

Close your eyes and make a wish.
Later we could cater to the animal.
(Knowing that you're mine.)
It's straight in my face.
You and your lover and the brain is paralyzed.

It's a form of evolution,

it's a kind of moving on,
it's a cycle of emotion,
in being the one.

In the storm of revolution,
what is done can be undone.
You know we look for the same insane games.
Got to be commital to the subtle variations.

It's a form of evolution,
it's a kind of moving on,
it's a cycle of emotion,
in being the one..

If your love is for the giving,
it's a case of destiny,
and you can find your source of pleasure
in being with me.
