Hush my darling , sleep my lover
There'll be rain till we run for cover
Lost in love in a world of strangers
Something only the Lord arranges

Oh my darling , now I found you
Want to live all my life around you
You're my light in a world of sorrow
Scared of losing this dream tomorrow

I just want to hold you forever , forever
Loving one another that's how it should be
Needing you beside me , together , no never
Try to rediscover no other but me

Oh my darling , if you leave me
I lose the love that has always freed me
Not knowing angel , what's coming after
Never hearing you're golden laughter

Oh my baby , hearts like thunder
Can't escape from the spell I'm under
I surrender to all your treasure
Endless nights of pain and pleasure

I just want to hold you , forever , forever
Loving one another , that's how it should be
Needing you beside me , together , no never
Try to rediscover no other but me

(break)

I just want to hold you , forever , forever
Loving one another , that's how it should be
Needing you beside me , together , no never
Try to rediscover no other but me

(repeat last verse and fade out )
