Maybe it's been so long
Our house looks kind of different
But the empty rooms still mean the same to me
And as I wander through the darkness
I'll keep crying one last tear
Now your lips are gone
I'll kiss your memory

Chorus:

I'll kiss your memory
As though you were here
I'll hold your memories till you reappear
And as I wander through the darkness
I'll keep crying one last tear
Now your lips are gone
I'll kiss your memory

I'll kiss the thoughts of leaves that fell when summer was over
And I'll cherish all the thoughts you gave to me
And I will wander through the darkness
I'll keep crying one last tear
Now your lips are gone
I'll kiss your memory

Chorus.
