Who is the girl with the crying face looking at millions
of signs?

She knows that life is a running race,
Her face shouldn't show any sides.

Melody Fair won't you comb your hair? You can be beautiful too.

Melody Fair , remember you're only a woman .
Melody Fair, remember you're only a girl. Ah...

Who is the girl at the window pane, watching the rain falling down?

Melody, life isn't like the rain ; its just like a merry go round.

Melody Fair won't you comb your hair? You can be beautiful too.

Melody Fair, remember you're only a woman.
Melody Fair, remember you're only a girl. Ah...

Who is the girl with the crying face, looking at millions
of signs?

She knows that life is a running race.
Her face shouldn't show any lines.

Melody Fair won't you comb your hair? You can be
beautiful too.

Melody Fair , remember you're only a woman.
Melody Fair, remember you're only a girl. Ah
