Where do I go when all the stars leave the sky
And all the magic that you do
That ain't no way to say you're sorry
Won't fix my broken heart
Don't ever leave me girl
How can you leave me lovin' you

Where do I go when all the words turn to lies
And steal the feeling that we knew
That ain't no way to say you're sorry
Won't fix my broken heart
Please don't ever leave me girl
How can you leave me lovin' you

Well, I got a chance (got a chance)
Well , no chance at all (no chance at all)
That I can make you understand
Oh, let there be a chance (be a day_
Oh , let there be a place (far away)
The love that you and I alone can live with us
The story that our children hear
One day , my love, (day my love)
That you , my love, we're born to be by life

Where do I go when all the stars leave the sky
And all the magic that you do
That ain't no way to say you're sorry
Won't fix my broken heart
Don't ever leave me girl
How can you leave me lovin' you
(break)
Won't fix my broken heart
Don't ever leave me girl
How can you leave me lovin' you

Where do I go when all the stars leave the sky
And all the magic that you do
That ain't no way to say you're sorry
Won't fix my broken heart
Don't ever leave me girl
How can you leave me lovin' you

(repeat last verse and fade out)
