I'm gonna spend
The rest of my days
Waiting for the night
Of my final day
No one should be denied
No one should have been born
This way
Open your arms
And come comfort me
If we could look inside
Would we disagree?
No one should be denied
No one should have been born
This way
Why did I let it go?
Why have I crossed this world?
Only to feel so alone
If only I could have known
No one should be denied
No one should have been born
This way
Why did I let it go?
Why have I crossed this world?
Only to feel so alone
If only I could have known
No one should be denied
No one should have been born
This way
No one should be denied
No one should be denied
No one should be denied
No one should be denied
