Failure

Give up don't try at all anymore, anymore.

Your weakness

Manipulate no more

This is the last time

This is the last time

Throw it away

With discerning mental love affairs

I'd rather stick with any number

Of these played-out fairy tales and

Moments of your yellow shining

Spending your time hating in hiding

Making out the reasons why

The life your see the public eye

With everything you try,

Well it's never good enough

Oh! These friends die easy

Oh! Just disappear

Oh! Well, my best friend,

I knew these lives would end up here

[X2]

Your weakness

Manipulate no more

This is the last time

This is the last time

If I could tell you any and everything

Don't ask, just tell, like I should,

Like I know you never could and

Moments come out of hiding

Spitting weakness to colors shining

The dark you see, the reason why

You fail at everything you try

With everything you are,

Well it's never good enough

Oh! These friends die easy
Oh! Just disappear
Oh! Well, my best friend,
I knew these lives would end up here
[X2]
I knew these lives would end up here

Stay gone
And I won't even say good-bye
And I won't even say good-bye
[X2]

Oh! These friends die easy
Oh! Just disappear
Oh! Well, my best friend,
[X2]

I knew these lives would end up here
