Listen up
You've wasted your time
And wasting mine
Failing to be somebody
You want to be forgotten just like the rest?
Or do you want to stand up and fucking be somebody?

Yeah
So tell me what it's like
To have lived without moving an inch
And have you up and left the state
We just talk but never live
You laugh at me then you laugh at them
But I laugh at you cause you're just the same, the same

I may have, I may have
More sensitivity than talents
But I, I will be
The king of my world
And thank God that I'll never be you.

So tell me how it feels to see me
I am all you want to be
Can you control your jealousy?
You know you love the tragedy
We laugh at you then we laugh at them
Then you laugh at me cause we're all the same, the same

I may have, I may have
More sensitivity than talent
But I, I will be
The king of my world
And thank god that I'll never be you.

I'll never be you
I'll never be you
I'll never be you
