We are living 99.
What do you want anyhow, man? You say life is hard today that's why you speak schrill and laut, man. All crows are as black as you, but you want to be a white one. I don't know what to think.
So I am falling down. I fall down. A new millennium is coming up and you hope all things will be better. See the eclipse of the sun. I swear it means nothing odd man. A 100 metres above the earth the eagle does not bother questions. I don't know what to think. So I am falling down.
