Cloud my eyes and tell me what to see,
I'm falling.
Every way I turn the same disease,
But I like it.
Brace myself and hit the wall with ease,
I'm Colliding.
I'm not minding the pain.
I've been down here before,
All my bones and joints are sore.
Make my way out of the wreck again.
I've been down here before,
Lost myself and so much more.
Find my way out of the game again.

Open up my head and take it in,
Just like always.
Think about the bar and take a swing,
Loaded trapeze.
What you need the most from me is yours.
I'll continue to deceive you, my friend.

I've been down here before,
All my bones and joints are sore.
Make my way out of the wreck again.
I've been down here before,
Lost myself and so much more.
Find my way out of the game again.

You lost what made you you,
Or maybe I never knew.
I can't stay here anymore,
Give it all or you're on your own.
I will leave you.
I will leave you.
I will leave you.

I've been down here before,
All my bones and joints are sore.
Make my way out of the wreck again.
I've been down here before,
Lost myself and so much more.

Find my way out of the game again.

I've been down here before,
All my bones and joints are sore.
Make my way out of the wreck again.
I've been down here before,
Lost myself and so much more.
Find my way out of the game again.
