"Secretly In Love"

I was secretly in love but you were often reminding me
Of; that we were as close as two could ever be and I was
Great, but you just couldn't love a girl like me.

Hey, you look so good. That's why I stuck around much Longer than I should

It was a bit like dying; the friendly kissing, the tender
Lying. Did you enjoy how I slowly turned to be you?
Watch
Me move and talk just like you used to do!

Hey, you look so good. That's why I stuck around much Longer than I should.
Hey, you look too good. That's why I walked your path
Much further than I should.

I was secretly in love. I read the books that you read, I Memorised the things you said, 'cause you, you were so
Bright and I could never get things right.

Hey, you look so good. That's why I stuck around much Longer than I should.
Hey, you simply look too good.
That's the reason why I spent years in your Neighbourhood.
