Here's a song from an open mind

I give it to you

Because i can

And if you'r thinking that it's not that kind

It cause my mood swings

Makes me feel ashamed

It can pass the time

A girl with eyes that see a hundred years

Half remembered' this is my dream

Spining out from where the hole apears

I've never seen her

But i've got photographs

It can blow your mind

An idea falls from a porcelain sky (sky, sky, sky, sky)

It won't make you rich

And it won't get you high (high, high, high, high)

Out of the

Out of the void it comes

From an open mind

Out of the

Out of the void it comes

It comes from my mind
