Open your eyes now
Hear me out before I lose my mind
I've been waiting for hours
Let the salt flow, feel my coil unwind

Give me a smile please
Count the calm and watch my breathing slow
Winding me up tease
Get inside my head and make it show

Ah, yeah, gravity eyelids, gravity eyelids come down
Ah, yeah, gravity eyelids, gravity eyelids come down

Touching your oil skin
Slipping hands down past your waist to find
I've been waiting for hours
Let the salt flow, feel my coil unwind

Go to the edge swim
Brown the eyes that sleep has rendered blind

Ah, yeah, gravity eyelids, gravity eyelids come down
Ah, yeah, gravity eyelids, gravity eyelids come down

Come love so young with your gold arms so I wake her
Come love so young with your

Ah, yeah, gravity eyelid, gravity eyelids comes down
Ah, yeah, gravity eyelid, gravity eyelids comes down
