HELLO

Through a different kind of silence
You're waiting and you're wasting
Into the road of sadness I'm walking

Without you.

CHORUS:

Hello, Hello, hello, hello
Is it gonna last?
Or don't you come and take me with you
And so I know you had to go.
I'm dreaming of the past,
An echo of the years that passed through.

Asleep in your arms I'm drifting
I'm falling, the sorrow
Dead to the world you left me and footsteps

I follow

CHORUS (2x)

Hello, Hello, hello, hello
Is it gonna last?
Or don't you come and take me with you
And so I know you had to go.
I'm dreaming of the past,
An echo of the years that passed through.
