"Not Beautiful Anymore"

You can be with somebody you like to be with
And just touch their cheek or hold their hand
And it's the most beautiful thing in the world
You don't need sex when you're on that stade
You don't have to .. it's ..
I would think it's just ..
It's a weird trip

[Instrumental:]

I don't think that having children could make up for what I'm gonna get out of it eventually

[Instrumental:]

You can be with somebody you like to be with
And just touch their cheek or hold their hand
And it's the most beautiful thing in the world
You don't need sex when you're on that stade because,
Because you're so satisfied with just holding hands,
That going for more than that isn't beautiful anymore.
