Airholes - life at twenty two To the biggest liar in the world, go ahead with another girl you know, Youre going nowhere, lead her on until you get the chance to strip its just another trick so slick whats your point in life? she said.

I hid in the dune,
Im stuck in a tune, thats life, life at twenty two,

Heres to the night,
Im feeling overboard, magical pies, that is impossible, clear of all ties but this is the worst Im told, innocent lives been killed in a superstore,
heres to the night.

Tell me please whats going on?
A perfect life I wish I had it all, you said its gonna be okay, we dont have to make the call, hell command and write it for us all, lets just passively wait and try.
