Take me when you come, I'll be waiting,
Waiting for your call, in these haunted dreams,
We're miles apart I know, You promised to..
Love me as I am...

I wish I was only there with you,
Holding your arms, kissing you,
Here with you tonight.

I just wish that I'm not like this,
I know I'm not worthy of your kiss,
But as long as I live, I'll never stop,
Loving you like the way that I do everyday.

There's something about you girl, I just can't figure this,
I wanna be the one, I wanna be your lie
And will you take my hand, and lead me where it ends
My heart aches for you.
