Things seem to worsen as time goes along we stand bewildered and ask what is wrong We say it's a pity but that's not enough we've asked a question and the answer is love
The answer is love to all of the problems we face We can't solve our problems still we rid out hearts of hate
We can't fight our brothers and get blessings from above
We have asked a question and the answer is love [ steel ]
People are hungry with no clothes to wear how can they survive if nobody cares Still we've refused them when they turn to us that's not the answer the answer is love
The answer is love...
We have asked a question and the answer is love
